*“He changes times and seasons;
he deposes kings and raises up others.
He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning”
– Daniel 2:21.*

These are the words of Daniel after he and his faithful friends prayed for the understanding of King Nebuchadnezzar’s dream. They signify a celebration in the heart of Daniel that springs from the sovereignty of God. As we begin to see the seasons change from summer to fall, take time to enjoy the beauty of God’s creation and take time to exalt Him for his divine plan. HCA is enjoying the blessing of God. I can see it on the faces of students and hear it in the voices of parents, grandparents, friends, and neighbors of HCA students. Like Daniel and his friends, continue to bathe the school in prayer, specifically asking for Him to impart wisdom and knowledge to our students and staff. Pray that God would use HCA to prepare those whom He will raise up to lead this nation in the days ahead. Pray that His “will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.”

- ◆ Parent Teacher Fellowship will meet on September 6th at 3:15 in the lunchroom.
- ◆ All of our fall sports teams are in action each week, so take advantage of the opportunities to watch them compete.
- ◆ Enjoy the long weekend – No school on Monday, September 5th in honor of Labor Day.
