Since fall is my favorite season, there isn't much more enjoyable to me than a 60-degree evening under a clear sky in the middle of October. When you add in hundreds of children and adults enjoying themselves with games, auctions, food, and face-painting, a night like that becomes special. Such was my experience on Friday evening as I wandered from place to place and activity to activity at the annual Harvest Festival. And while I was outbid on every basket that caught my attention, seeing so much support for the school and its mission easily surpassed that disappointment. The PTF officers, with their matching sweatshirts and T-shirts, gave of themselves in so many ways to ensure that every need was met, every resource provided, and that the campus was able to welcome students on Monday morning. The parents, students, and teachers who volunteered to work the activity booths were awesome and greatly appreciated. If you have not yet attended a PTF meeting, the next one will be on November 1st at 3:15 in the HCA lunchroom. They typically last about 30 minutes, and they are a great way to contribute to the overall goal of supporting the teachers and students of HCA!
