They say that March “comes in like a lion and out like a lamb.” Turbulent weather gives way to blue skies and pleasant temperatures. Looking at the calendar for March leaves me with a similar feeling. There are a lot of activities that occur in March, and I have no doubt that the month will pass like a whirlwind.

- Open enrollment begins March 2nd with the New Family Open House. As of this morning, there are 394 students who have enrolled from our current HCA families. Please take advantage of the current family re-enrollment window that ends February 28th. Once open enrollment begins, spaces will fill up quickly.
- No school on March 10th (unless a major snow storm hits between now and then).
- Rotary week (dress down each day for $1) is March 13th-16th
- PTF Spring Fundraiser Fun Run will be on March 17th, with a possible goal of raising enough money to add an awning to the front of the school.
- Drama Performance of “Freaky Friday” on March 25th-26th at the Historic Alhambra Theater.
- During the week of March 27th-31st, the seniors are on a trip, the juniors are on a trip, the book fair is at the school, and Grandparents Day is that Friday.

Then we reach Spring Break, and look forward to Spring Testing and Graduation.

On another note, the gym floor is almost complete. Hopefully, by March 15th or so, we will be back to our regular routine. There are still pieces of the old gym floor available if you would like to possess a piece of HCA history for a donation of $10. Also, the playground installation should begin soon, and be available in time for warmer weather.

Reminder: The re-enrollment fee will go up to $180 on March 1st. Also, classes are filling up fast, and we open enrollment to the public on March 2nd. If you need the re-enrollment link emailed to you again, please contact Ms. Crisp.
