Though I fail to read as much or as often as I would like, when I want to be challenged with theological thought I will pick up a book by Arthur Pink, Andrew Murray, or Oswald Chambers. Each of these writers presents spiritual truth and provides spiritual insight that often requires extended attention in order to grasp the full extent of his words. In the devotional entry for this morning in My Utmost for His Highest, Oswald Chambers expounds upon Matthew 9:38, a passage in which Jesus says, “Pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.” Chambers emphasizes that prayer, more than common sense, medicine, education, or effort, lies at the heart of obedience to the Master. He concludes the thought with these words, “Prayand He will engineer your circumstances to send you out as His laborer.”

As much as we strive to provide academic excellence based on Biblical principles (the mission statement of HCA), we strive to provide and expand an environment through which students will learn to hear God’s call into the harvest field. At this moment, everything that HCA offers rests on the receipts from tuition and fees. What if that were not the case? What if the cost of tuition for future classes of students could be reduced because of other streams of revenue or financial resources? In the near future anyone who visits the HCA website will have the opportunity to give toward the current and future needs of the school! Those gifts can be directed to any number of opportunities at Heritage – facilities, support for recipients of the fellowship grant, future expansion, quality teacher recruitment and retainment – any way in which the Lord leads or “sends” as His laborers into the harvest field.

Signs of harvest are everywhere: tractors, combines, and trucks appear in almost every field. There is even a sign announcing Harvest Fest in the front lawn of our campus! Will you join me in praying to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His harvest field, and then watch how He engineers your circumstances to send you out?

FYI – Harvest Fest is Friday, October 20th from 5pm-8pm on the HCA campus, and Friday is a noon-dismissal!

Annual Book Character Pumpkin Decorating Contest

The library will once again be getting into the fall spirit by having a pumpkin/gourd decorating contest. Students are invited to decorate a pumpkin like their favorite book character. It's easy and fun for the whole family!

Entries may be dropped off at the library beginning
Tuesday, October 17 through Friday, October 20.

The pumpkins will be on display in the HCA Library again this year. Everyone is invited to vote for their favorite pumpkin during the Harvest Fest as many times as they wish. Pumpkins entered on time are eligible to win prizes! There will be prizes for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place, in two categories: one for votes and one decided by judges.

CONTEST RULES:

- You may use pumpkins or gourds or both to create your project.
- Absolutely no carved pumpkins! Pumpkins that are carved rot, attract bugs and smell. Decorate your pumpkin with paint, markers, fabric, etc. Carved pumpkins will be disqualified!
- Projects must represent a book character!
- All projects must be picked up at the end of Harvest Festival on Friday night. Pumpkins that are not picked up will be thrown away.

Please fill out the bottom portion and return with your pumpkin by Friday Oct. 20
