Fridays in the Fall are some of my favorite days of the year. Being a fan of crisp autumn air, I appreciate the opportunity to step outside without sweating or shivering, and I appreciate the excitement of the annual Harvest Fest! Needless to say, this past Friday met all of those criteria. The 2023 Harvest Fest was so much fun because on that one night, so many people served, saw the future of HCA, and shared their resources. A big “Thank you” goes to the Parent Teacher Fellowship (PTF) for organizing the event, to all the parents and grandparents who worked the booths and walked the halls with children, grandchildren, and friends. A big “Thank you” goes to the teachers and staff who helped prepare the building, plan the activities, and park the cars. Family and faith on a Friday in the Fall, what a combination!
